February 2024 Newsletter

Hello, all! Here's hoping you're having a safe and happy winter season.

As I enjoy endless cups of hot tea while staring at my snow-covered backyard, I often give thanks for the little victories life has handed me since launching my stationery and art business - and that includes the friendly and encouraging responses I receive from many of you each time I send a newsletter.

Does everything go perfectly every day? Absolutely, unequivocally NOT.

But do I try to learn something new and wonderful every day (especially from my countless mistakes)? YES! And I'm finding that if I accept my mistakes as a tool for improvement, I rarely make them a second time.

In the words of Oscar Wilde, "Experience is simply the name we give our mistakes." Here's hoping all of yours are small and easily fixed.

And now... let me tell you a little bit about what's been happening in my studio!

A "Thank You" EVERYONE Understands (Literally!)

"Thank you." It's a phrase we probably don't use enough - at least I know I don't.

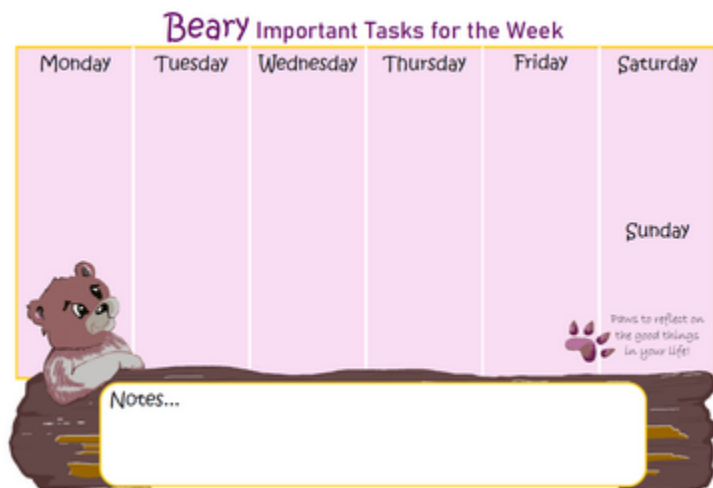

To make it easy to say thanks, I've created a beautiful multi-lingual card. The interior is blank so you can add your own personal message, and the card comes with a matching, self-sealing 5" x 7" envelope. I must confess, it's one of my favorite products to date. See more details here.

INTRODUCING: The “Beary Important Things to Do this Week” Notepad

If you’re like me, you like to organize your days to get the most out of your precious time. But planning shouldn’t be boring - which is why I created my Beary Important Tasks for the Week notepads.

Stay organized the fun way with this cute and encouraging weekly “to do” list. (It even has a reminder to “paws” to reflect on the good things in your life!) Purchase yours here.

Sometimes You Gotta’ Say...

Samson the Mouse says, sometimes you gotta’ say... Let it rain.

Show the world you can weather whatever it throws at you! This adorable yet practical tote bag proves you can face anything. Click this link for details.

Have a super finish to February and look for my March 2024 newsletter on or about the 18th.

As always, if you'd like to unsubscribe from this monthly update, simply hit reply and type "cancel" and you'll be removed from my list immediately.

Cordially,
